

Coach as the LEADER

Hello!

I am Jass Malaney, PCC

I am here because I love to Elevate the Leader in You!

*“What lies behind us
& what lies before us
are trivial matters
compared to what lies within us”*

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Leadership

Great Leaders grow through Challenge and Adversity...

 -PURPOSE

I want my Coach to be.....

Making Sense

What Roles do I play :

Right now:
In my vision of
success for myself,
what will I be doing, what will I have, and who will I be?

Right now:
How balanced is my life? How much am I
enjoying my life?
How much am I
making my own
meaning in life?

A hand is shown pouring water from a teapot into an open book. The book is placed on a stack of several other books. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a spray of droplets that fall onto the pages of the open book. The background is dark, making the books and the water stand out.
